

This is a summary of the decision of the DPC

The Data Protection Office received an official complaint submitted anonymously by the Complainant. The complaint was lodged against her neighbour (the Respondent) regarding the installation and use of a surveillance camera. The Complainant alleged that the Respondent had installed a rotating camera directed towards her room, thereby intruding into her privacy.

Subsequently, the Data Protection Office wrote to the Police to seek assistance for investigating this complaint and to conduct a site visit at the Respondent's premises.

The Police conducted the site visit and confirmed that the CCTV camera in question was not rotating and did not capture images of the Complainant's premises.

The Data Protection Commissioner has decided as follows:-
In view of the above, the enquiry is closed to the satisfaction of all parties under section 6 of the Data Protection Act 2017 (DPA).
