

Preservation order

The Data Protection Commissioner may apply to a Judge in Chambers for a preservation order for the expeditious preservation of data, including traffic data, where he/she has reasonable ground to believe that the data are vulnerable to loss or modification.